

LIVE NEWS FROM THE TWIN CITIES

THIEVES GET CLOTHING.

Opening a side window thieves last night entered the home of Louis Perini, 5025 Olcott avenue, and got away with $300 worth of clothing.

TELLS OF ADVENTURES.

Federal Enforcement Prohibition Officer Harvey Rhed, of the Hammond district, returned home this morning telling of his exploits downstate. Officer Rhed claims to have featured in over a dozen of the largest still operations known in the state.

The Hammond federal officers, together with a handful of other federal agents recruited from Terre Haute, and Indianapolis under the direction of Chief W. O. Holman, invaded Clinton, Ind., yesterday afternoon, seized nearly 3,000 gallons of mash, destroyed hundreds of barrels of mash, confiscated two huge stills and returned to Terre Haute last evening with their prisoners.

Officer Rhed was given quite a thrill when he was selected as the man to serve the warrant on "Big Jim" as James Carera is known throughout Vermillion and surrounding counties. Chief Holman warned the fast Chicago man to carry heavy artillery and be prepared to meet up with a "bad crowd" of his guards. In the last, "Big Jim" off his guard, he found a brick building owned and operated by the king of bootleggers in that section, a full-fledged distillery in full action was found. One 550-gallon still, another of 550 gallons capacity, nearly 100 gallons of whiskey and about 200 barrels of mash were found in the building. With an eye to detail and system, Carera, the agent said, was operating what was thought to be the largest illicit distillery in the middle west.

DRIVE FOR RUSSIAN RELIEF.

Urged by the necessity for immediate relief in the famine districts of Russia, the East Chicago organization in cooperation with the Lake county movement will open their drive for funds tomorrow night.

A concert given by an All-Russian student east, which is now touring the state in behalf of the starving Russians, will be held at the Indiana Harbor Auditorium theatre tomorrow night as the opening of this campaign for funds.

The local organization headed by Mayor Frank Callahan, Ernest Mackey, cashier of the Indiana Harbor National Bank, Ray Dunn of the Inland Steel company and other prominent men of the city will be in charge of the relief drive in this district. Mayor H. O. Johnson of Gary, chairman of the Russian Relief in Lake county, in a communication addressed to Chairman Mackey, informed the local committee that the county was endeavoring to raise a fund of $12,000 and urged that everyone contribute liberally to this worthy charity.

A WONDERFUL FILM.

The Fox photoplay, "Over the Hill," which was made from Will Carleton's celebrated "Warm Balmers," and has enjoyed such a marvellous success wherever presented—backed by an initial run of a full year on Broadway—will be shown at the New Home Theatre, Indiana Harbor, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

William Fox, the noted picture producer, remarks "Over the Hill" as his favorite over all the pictures he ever produced. At the time when it was ready for its initial screening, and before its sensational Broadway success had started, Mr. Fox issued the following interesting statement:

"I have watched the development of 'Over the Hill' from the moment the first scene was written. I have watched it throughout the months it has been in course of production. It represents a labor of love. In it I take a pride which has never been exceeded—or even equaled—in all the years Fox Film Corporation has been issuing pictures."

TWO FOUND GUILTY.

Constable Mike Peto of 1301 Jefferson street, Gary, and John Struss, of 3519 Monroe street, Gary, who were arrested last Saturday night on Pennsylvania avenue Indiana Harbor, by police officers Kelch and Kerrin when a ten gallon jug of moonshine whiskey was found in their car, were found guilty in Judge Teyman's court yesterday. John Struss was fined $130.00 and sentenced to 35 days at the penitentiary, his partner Mike Peto was fined $150 and given a suspended sentence of 150 days at the county jail.

WHERE IS THE LAD?

Word comes to Chief of Police Struss this morning from the parents of Joseph Warner at Indianapolis that as yet their runaway son has not returned to his home.

The boy was arrested in Indiana Harbor over a week ago and held by the city authorities until funds for his traveling expense home were received from the boy's parents. This money was received Sunday, and the boy, accompanied by Federal Prohibition officer Harvey Rhed, left for Indianapolis. Officer Harvey Rhed turned the boy over to the Indianapolis officials and now word comes that the boy cannot be found.
